Chapter 13 Trustee's Report of Filed Claims

March 28, 2025

The office of the Chapter 13 Trustee reports that both the governmental and non-governmental bar dates have expired in the above-encaptioned case. The Trustee's staff has examined the schedules of debts filed in this case as well as the records of the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court. Based upon that examination, the Trustee's office submits the following report of the names and addresses of the creditors who have timely filed a proof of claim in this case, together with the amount set forth on each such claim.

To Debtor(s):

This is a report of the proof of claims creditors have filed in your case. The amounts of the claims are the original amounts, so they do not reflect any payments made and may not reflect the current balances. This is not an audit and does not include the Trustee's administrative fee, but it does include any attorney fees to be paid through your Chapter 13 plan.

The claim numbers above are assigned by this office for administrative purposes but are not the official claim numbers. For the official claim numbers, please refer to the claim numbers assigned by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court displayed on CM/ECF.

Please review this report carefully. If you dispute any amounts claimed by your creditors, you must contact your attorney. We have also provided a copy of this report to your attorney.

The Trustee distributes your plan payments based on your Chapter 13 plan. Therefore, disputed claims and untimely claims may receive disbursements unless you properly file a written objection with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and the Court disallows the claim. Whether a claim is filed timely or late, it is allowed unless a party in interest objects. 11 U.S.C. § 502(a); In re Smith, No. 09-43823, 2010 WL 5018379, at * 2 - 3 (Bankr. W.D. Wa. Dec. 3, 2010). See also Lane v. The Bank of New York Mellon et al. (In re Lane), 959 F.3d 1226, 1230 (9th Cir. 2020). In addition, in the absence of an objection, even an untimely proof of claim is entitled to payment through the plan in the same manner as other claims of its class. Smith, 2010 WL 5018379, at *3.

Objections to claims in chapter 13 cases must be filed and served no later than 270 days from the petition date, unless good cause is shown. Local Bankr. R. 3007-1(b). Objections to claims shall be filed and served at least 30 days preceding the date fixed for hearing. Local Bankr. R. 9013-1(d)(2)(C). See also Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3007.

Please contact your attorney immediately if you have questions or concerns.
